

National Law Enforcement

M U S E U M

A MATTER OF HONOR

Corrections officer uniforms 1870-1940

Evidence or other items from jail & prison riots & escapes 1850-current

Native American Law Enforcement badges & artifacts from officers c. late 1800s – early 1900

Municipal Police Force Badges c. 1845-1890

Early Detective artifacts c. 1845 – 1890

Texas Rangers artifacts badge, clothing, and weapons c. 1850

Artifacts or photographs from Women law enforcement officers in the 1860-current

Western Lawmen Firearms (Derringers, six-shooters, shotguns, and rifles of type used by Western lawmen) c. 1870-1890

Western Lawmen Handcuffs c. 1870-1890

Western Lawmen Badges c. 1850 – 1900

Personal artifacts from western lawmen c. 1870-1900

Early Fingerprinting Kits c. 1910

Training uniforms from academies 1920-current

Training materials (manuals, weapons, tools) 1920-current

Surveillance equipment used in various cases 1920-current

G-men Uniforms & Equipment: personal and Law Enforcement issued 1925-1935

Current Reel Law Enforcement TV & movie props & artifacts 1930-current

Riot control Equipment c. 1960-1970

Narcotics case evidence 1960-current

Equipment for female officers c. 1970

Recruitment materials for women & minorities c. 1970

Identification cards for minority officers c. 1970

Counter Culture evidence, ie. papers, photographs, objects from counter culture groups like, Black Panthers etc. c. 1970

Undercover equipment used by officers 1920-current

Bomb Squad equipment used by officers and sample training bombs

Video games that are controversial or were banned because of their representations of LEOs, 1990-current

Photographs of law enforcement officers doing their jobs, 1990-current

Uniforms from agencies that were folded into Homeland security

Artifacts or photographs from minority law enforcement officers

Items related to Law Enforcement firsts ie, first K-9 unit at your department

Yearbooks and histories of law enforcement agencies

Please do not send any items to the NLEM without first contacting a staff member. If you have any of these items or have questions about how to donate or loan them to the NLEM, please contact our Associate Curator, Jeni Ashton at jashton@nleomf.com, 202-737-8532-phone, or 202-737-7740-fax. Thank you. 11/5/2009